REPUBLICAN RALLY

Will be Held in Middletown Opera House Oct. 29th

SPEAKING — MOVIES — MUSIC

On Friday evening, October 29th, at 8 o'clock there will be held in the Opera House in Middletown, a rousing Republican Rally at which the two foremost members of our State Bar will speak. The Hon. William S. Hilles who with his expert knowledge of the League of Nations will discuss that question, and show its peril to our country. The Hon. Robert H. Richards, who is equally expert in all matters relative to the School Code, will discuss it fully, and show its many advantages to our citizens, and answer all objections that have been urged against it.

The Hon. Caleb R. Layton, Candidate for Congress, and Messrs. William D. Denny and J. Danforth Bush, our Candidates for Governor and Lieutenant-Governor of the State, besides others, will also briefly address the meeting.

Moving pictures and good music will make the occasion yet more enjoyable. Any voter who does not clearly understand that important question, the League of Nations, will hear it plainly and forcibly presented by Mr. Hilles who will clear away the many doubts and perplexities that cunning politicians have thrown upon it.

It will be a superb occasion, and quite apart from any partisan bias, one well worth anybody's participation.

HE REPUDIATES COX

Murray Lloyd Goldsborough, of the Eastern, Md., bar, one of the influential young Democratic leaders of Talbot County, Md., has made public a letter in which he declares he will support the Republican national candidate this year and excommunicates "Wilsonism." He says:

"New issues and new problems confront us and of necessity new solutions must be found. No campaign in our history has covered such dangers and such hopeful possibilities as this one and particularly trying is the position of the conservative, lifelong Democrat, who like myself has to make up his mind whether his first allegiance is due to the party that he has always served or to the United States of America."

"Sentimental impulses crowd to the front to compel me to stay in the ranks that I have always known and loved, but, if I allowed such considerations and the thought of adverse criticism to cause me to put my party emblem ahead of my country's good I shall be at least, a moral coward. As Bryanism once drove many a patriotic Democrat temporarily away from the party, so Wilsonism drives me with thousands of others into the Republican ranks this fall."

COX'S BACK BREAKING LOAD

"I have waited this long and hoped that Governor Cox would have the nerve, the independence and the foresight to repudiate the Wilson Administration and campaign on constructive lines directed toward our national development and upbuilding in this disorganized time. He has allowed himself however, to be turned into a political beast of burden to carry the back-breaking load of dangerous and impractical policies of his predecessor and therefore my die is cast."

"In the Republican platform and campaign utterances I see the promise of return to American principles, to sound conservative application of natural political laws as immutable and unchangeable as the natural law of gravity. I see or think I see, the end of the idea that the world can be changed overnight by radical legislation, the end of wading in where angels fear to tread."

"Through confiscatory and uneconomic taxation, through meddlesome interference with the natural and proper course of business, through supine toleration of organized labor, through fiscal policies of unrestrained extravagance, through incompetent bungling of our public utilities that has forced their practical disintegration, through childish adherence to the Utopian dreams of one willful man our country has been brought to a point where only our great resources and the heroic efforts of business and finance have saved us from the chaos of fallen Rome or Russia."

Col. W. D. Denney in Accident

Colonel William D. Denney, Dover, Republican nominee for Governor, was the only one of an automobile party of five to escape uninjured when the car in which they were riding collided with a truck load of sand near Northeast, Md., last Thursday morning. Those in the party in addition to Colonel Denney were Archdeacon Benjamin F. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Warren S. Hall and Miss L. Eugenia Denney, sister of Col. Denney. They were on their way to Baltimore to attend the consecration of Bishop Philip Cook, in Mr. Hall's car, who was driving when the accident occurred. Archdeacon Thompson sustained painful injuries and all the others but Col. Denney were cut or bruised. Although the top was torn practically off the car and the windshield broken in the accident they were able to continue to Baltimore in the machine.

Registration Heavy

The registration in west St. Georges Hundred on Saturday last, was the heaviest last day in the history of the hundred, 278 having qualified to vote in the third district and 173 in the fourth election district. A great majority of those qualified were women and now fully 90% of the ladies of this hundred are eligible to vote at the General Election to be held November 2d.

The Harding-Coolidge League of Wilmington has enrolled more than 5000 active members during the past few days.

The State Home for the Feeble-Minded, which has been under construction for a year, will be opened within a few weeks, it is announced.

A commercial course has been installed in the Lewes High school, and Miss Irene Hopkins, of Dover, appointed head of the department.

William J. Highfield, of Wilmington, was elected Grand Master of the Delaware Masonic lodge at the annual meeting held in Wilmington last week.

Owing to a scarcity of houses in Georgetown some of the residents who have been given notice by their landlords to move, will have to go to other towns.

Delaware College and the Women's College of Delaware recently announced their first artist series, which is to be presented in Wolf Hall during the present school year. Season tickets sell for two dollars, thus merely paying expenses. The series is one of remarkable interest and one which no student can afford to miss.

No Change in Rabbit Law

The Legislature of Delaware at the Special Session of 1920 enacted, among other legislation, an amendment to the Game and Fish laws. The wording of this amendment is such that its meaning and intent, as it applies to the hunting of rabbits, is not clear, but on the contrary is susceptible of different interpretations. As a result of this ambiguity the Board of Game and Fish Commissioners has received numerous requests to place a construction upon the law for the guidance of interested persons during the approaching gunning season.

The Board has carefully examined the amendment, as well as the various other provisions of the Game Laws relating to the taking of rabbits, and is unanimously of the opinion that the amendment in question does not change the open season during which it is lawful to hunt rabbits, and that, therefore, rabbits may be lawfully hunted and killed during the approaching gunning season as heretofore, viz., from November 15th to December 31st.

Barham—Outen Wedding

Miss Zeta Outen, of Townsend, and Mr. Everett Barham, of Cumberland, Md., were quietly married at the M. E. parsonage in Townsend, on Tuesday evening of last week, Rev. George P. Jones, officiating. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Outen of Townsend, while the groom is employed in the mechanical department of the Construction Company which is building the new State highway near Townsend. They will reside in Townsend.

Mark Your Ballot at Home

The sudden change that extends the ballot to women finds the election facilities inadequate. In the third district Mr. D. W. Stevens says they have to vote more than one a minute, and this cannot be done if the usual time is taken in the voting booth. Therefore all persons should get a ballot, mark it at their leisure in their home, and so come prepared to vote without 5 seconds delay. If this be done by a large number of voters a congestion will result in depriving many citizens of their chance to vote.

Forest Presbyterian Church

Rev. John Townley will preach in Forest Church, to-morrow (Sunday) both morning and evening.

Grip

Grip usually starts just the same as a cold with a watery discharge from the nose. You are much more likely to contract the grip when you have a cold. For that reason when grip is prevalent you should go to bed as soon as you feel that you are taking cold and stay in bed until fully recovered which should not be long. If you take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Three days in bed now is better than three weeks later on.

DAVIS BACK AT FORT DUPONT

Homer Davis, a Wilmingtonian, one of the men who escaped from Fort Dupont, several months ago with several other prisoners, at the same time that their guard likewise disappeared, and who are alleged to have afterwards robbed the son of former State Senator Frank R. Pool, near this town, has been brought back to Fort Dupont.

Davis surrendered at Indiana, Pa. Corporal Thomas W. Andrews of Fort Dupont and one of his men brought the fugitive back.

The crime for which Davis was wanted was an unusually atrocious one. After the four men had disappeared from Fort Dupont and were walking along the road near Middletown, they were overtaken by young Pool, a Delaware College student who was motoring to town. He asked them if they wanted a ride. Scarcely had they become seated in the machine when one of the four placed a revolver at his head and ordered him to drive along the road. At a lonely spot, Pool's machine was stopped and he was stripped of his clothing and left half dead in a wheat field. They then escaped in the machine.

ST. ANNE'S CHURCH NOTES

EPISCOPAL

Sunday, October 24th, 1920. The 21st Sunday after Trinity. Services: 10.30, morning prayer and sermon.

11.45, Sunday School. 7.30, Evening prayer and address. The Building and Grounds Committee will meet at the Rectory, on Saturday afternoon at two o'clock.

Thursday, October 28th, the festival of St. Simon and St. Jude, "Jude, the servant of Jesus Christ." St. Jude, J. L. St. Simon and St. Jude were both apostles. The first is also called Simon Zebedee, and the Canaanite, to distinguish him from Simon Peter. He preached the Gospel in Egypt, and Africa, and afterward in Britain, where some say, he was crucified. But others state that he died in Persia, by the hands of idolatrous priests, and that he was sawn asunder. St. Jude is reckoned among the orphans of our Lord, being the son of Joseph and brother of James, but in his humility he calls himself only the "servant of Jesus Christ." He is called in Scripture Lebbeus, expressive of prudence and understanding, and also Thaddeus, to denote one zealous in God's praise. He preached in Judea and Galilee, and has left one epistle. It is believed that he was put to death in Persia by the Magi.

The fall season has opened auspiciously for St. Anne's parish. The Sunday School is well attended, and there were enthusiastic meetings of the Parish Guild and the Woman's Auxiliary. Also, we have a goodly number at the Morning service, let us also be able to say the same of the Evening service. Won't you help?

The amount contributed thus far for the Improvement Fund for "Bishopstead" is seventy dollars. See the Bulletin Board in the Vestibule for the record of same.

We are contemplating giving the new pageant, "Advance the Line," in the parish, by the members of the Sunday School, and the Pastor will make the Commission on Church Pageantry and drama feels that the cause of the Missionary work of the church will be materially advanced wherever this pageant may be given.

The newly consecrated Bishop of the Diocese will shortly make out his schedule of visitations to administer the Rite of Confirmation. And we shall want to present a Class for this Rite. We therefore ask that those who are contemplating being confirmed to bear this in mind. The Pastor asks every communicant to assist him in securing candidates for confirmation. Some have godchildren (now grown up) whom they vowed to bring to the Bishop to be "confirmed by him as soon as they can say the creed, the Lord's Prayer and the Lord's Supper, and are sufficient in instructed in the other parts of the Church Catechism set forth for that purpose." Shame if the consecrated word be found an idle form, the word an empty sound! Many, too, have adult friends who might be brought to confirmation, if they were interested in the church and her teachings.

THE ACTUAL VALUE OF THE NASH SIX HAS NEVER BEEN SO CLEARLY RECOGNIZED AS IT IS RIGHT NOW

That is because motor car buyers are scrutinizing and comparing automobile values now as they have not done for years.

A market such as this always brings into sharp relief values that are really sound.

It shows which cars are over-priced and which cars are worth every dollar asked for them.

This process of comparison is emphasizing anew the superiority of Nash Six value.

It is making plain just how low priced the Nash Six is in comparison with those cars which even approximate it in cost.

It is gratifying to Nash Six owners and those contemplating its purchase to find that while the increased price of other cars since 1917 has averaged 76%, the Nash
Six has increased but 31%; really 24% considering the addition of cord tires and other equipment as standard.

The soundness of Nash policies has been demonstrated.

You may purchase a Nash Six now or at any time with the positive assurance that the price represents actual, intrinsic value plus the smallest possible manufacturer's profit.

Practical experience, no less

TO ABANDON DRIVE ON HIGH PRICES

Department of Justice's Activities to End November 1

ORGANIZATION TO DISBAND

This Decision Will Have No Effect On Department's Fight Against Violators Of The Lever Food Control Act.

Washington.—The campaign conducted by the Department of Justice against the high cost of living will be ended and the entire fair price organization disbanded November 1. Letters have gone out from the department to all fair price commissioners and all others engaged in the campaign, advising them of the department's decision to conclude this work, officials at the department stated. Department officials said that while the campaign had been successful, the immediate reason for closing up the work was a lack of funds. Abandonment of the campaign probably will mean the displacement of half a dozen special assistants to the attorney who have devoted their entire time in fighting high prices. What officials will retire has not been made known, however.

It was declared that the dissolution of the organization in the cost of living campaign would have no effect on the department's drive against violators of the Lever Food Control Act. The attorney general was represented as being fully convinced that the Lever act had made it possible to curb the hoarders and the profiteers, and determined to go forward with prosecutions of coal men and others against whom complaints have been made.

Instructions lately have gone out from the department to district attorneys to pay close attention to all trade organizations, with a view to ascertaining whether they have operated as a combination in restraint of trade. Officials said the trade organizations were so numerous that this phase of the work alone had required the services of more attorneys and agents than the department was able to supply because of its shortage of funds.

The government drive against the high cost of living has cost approximately $500,000, according to figures at the Department of Justice. Department officials pointed to collections of fines aggregating more than $275,000, assessed against convicted profiteers, as evidence of the success attained. Further fines might be collected, it was added, from the more than 1,600 persons and firms indicted through activities of the fair price groups.

Convictions obtained through the fair price commissions totaled 181, records of the department showed. There remain more than 200 other cases where arrests have been made, but the trials have not been held. Prison sentences imposed aggregate 10 years and 10 months in cases already decided. Officials said this represented more than 40 convictions, since most of the sentences were short.

163,738 DRAFT DODGING CASES.

Still 172,941 On The List Of "Deserters."

Washington.—Draft evaders who had been apprehended up to July 15 and their cases disposed of by the military authorities numbered 163,738, it was announced at the War Department.

The total number of draft desertions which had been reported to the Provost Marshal-General, was 498,033, but examination of Government records showed that 161,354 men classed as deserters had enlisted in the army, navy or Marine Corps or in the armed forces of the allies, so that the total number of desertions still listed now numbers 172,941.

NEWS REVIEW OF CURRENT EVENTS

Campaign of Assassination Is Making the Irish Problem More Difficult.

ASQUITH ASSAILS PREMIER

Large Part of the Island Faces Blockade—Poles and Russians Sign "Peace Without Victory"—American Agricultural Producers Object to Lower Prices.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD.

The Irish problem, instead of approaching a solution, seems to have taken a new lease of troubled life, and the woes of the Emerald Isle are increasing instead of diminishing. This deplorable fact is due directly to the campaign of murder, arson and intimidation that is being carried on by what Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, calls the inner circle of assassins. The daily and nightly assaults on the police and other officials of the British government provoke the latter to bloody reprisals which are to a considerable extent condoned and excused by the government. Premier Lloyd George made a speech at Carnarvon which was interpreted by his opponents as a justification of the reprisals. He said that 238 policemen had been shot, of whom 109 had been shot dead, and the patience of the police had given way, with the result that they hit back. Lloyd George declared that if, as was contended, there was war in Ireland, then the war must be waged on both sides. But when policemen were shot in the back by Sinn Féin men, the premier said, it was not war but murder. He asked whether, under the system of terrorism which made it impossible to obtain evidence, it was any wonder the police shot the murderers.

Herbert H. Asquith, former premier, who sees a chance to return to power, declared Lloyd George's speech was a "condonation of the hellish policy of reprisals," and another part of it he construed as "repudiation, root and branch, of dominion home rule." He is rallying all anti-government forces for a fight, as soon as parliament opens, over British government in Ireland. Before that time the delegation from the Irish peace conference is to be received by the premier, and it is believed he will then make a new offer to Ireland. Meanwhile the government, says Sir Hamar Greenwood, is determined to crush the campaign of assassination, and if necessary will increase the police force in the island to many thousands.

One threatened result of the campaign of assassination is the virtual blockade of a large part of Ireland through a withdrawal of the mail and telegraph service and the entire closing down of Irish railways. This would mean widespread distress and heavy loss to farmers and traders. Whenever parties of troops present themselves for conveyance the rail workers refuse to operate the trains, and the railway directors now have agreed on the instant dismissal of these men. The carrying out of this policy probably will result in the cessation of railway traffic within a month.

The British secret service believes it has proof that the Irish "republic" is being aided, financially and by the distribution of arms and the organization of an espionage system, by the Red organization headed by Victor Kopp, soviet envoy in Berlin. Kopp handles funds from Russia and organizes propaganda through newspapers and agents, and the secret service says it has established the connection of this intrigue with revolutionary movements in Ireland and other parts of the British empire. A dispatch from Paris says Sinn Féin agents have been trying to purchase submarines from Italy and France, but were told that Great Britain would consider the selling of submarines to them an act of war.

SEE DOOM OF BOLSHIEVISM

Confidence Expressed at Washington That the Movement Will Collapse During the Coming Winter.

Washington.—There is expectancy on the part of both State department and diplomatic observers here that bolshevism in Russia will collapse in the coming winter, and American officials are most interested in what may take its place. Reports to the department indicate that there is a recrudes-

The signing of a peace treaty and armistice by the Polish and soviet Russian delegates at Riga, reported a little prematurely last week, took place on October 12. The armistice was to become effective at midnight October 18. Joffe, head of the soviet delegation, described the peace as "a peace without victory and without vanquished," and disinterested observers at Riga agreed that that described it. Hence it was predicted that the pact would not be very pleasing to either the Poles or the Russians.

A peculiar complication in the affairs of that part of Europe arose through the seizure of Vilna, the capital of Lithuania, by troops under the command of General Zeligowski, who resigned from the Polish army before the occupation. His force is made up of both Poles and Lithuanians. He established a council of six in the city, and that body is planning a provisional government for central Lithuania pending the question of the self-determination of the inhabitants of that district. The Polish government disavowed the occupation of Vilna by Zeligowski, the Lithuanians were said to be mobilizing for the recapture of the city, and it was reported that representatives of the League of Nations might be asked to straighten out the situation.

As has been said before, the Russian soviet government is now free to devote all its strength to the crushing of Baron Wrangel in south Russia. But the baron is wasting no time, and late dispatches from Constantinople say his Dnieper river campaign is making excellent progress. He had just captured two important towns and destroyed a large munitions plant. The report that Makno, the guerrilla leader, had deserted Wrangel is confirmed, but several of his bands have been routed. Semenov, the Siberian anti-Bolshevik leader, has given his adherence to Wrangel and asked orders from him.

Every day brings its batch of reports of mutinies and revolts against the soviet rule, and in London it was believed the downfall of the Lenin and Trotsky regime was near. Serious fighting was said to be taking place in Moscow, the troops storming barricades in the streets. Bolshevik efforts elsewhere were collapsing. The Armenian and Georgian armies were preparing to unite to defend the two republics against the Bolshevik Turks, Tartars and Azerbaidjanians. France and Turkey have made an agreement by which the French will police Adana, Tarsus and Mersone for the protection of Armenia.

Earl Curzon, British foreign secretary has told the Russian Bolshevik foreign minister that the British naval forces have been ordered to attack on sight any Russian submarines encountered on the high seas—this because leading members of the soviet have declared that government considers itself in a state of war with Great Britain.

The various factions of the Italian Socialist party, assembled in convention, have been having a struggle for control. The moderates appear to have the whip hand and have refused to let the party commit itself in favor of soviet rule for Italy. The conference voted solidarity with Russia but the majority stood fast against the Communists and made it plain they wanted no repetition in Italy of what has happened to Russia. Their leaders declared the Russian difficulties came from the rottenness of the present regime and that the Bolshevik government would be unable to transport products to other countries even after the blockade is lifted. Later in the week Socialist leaders and those of the General Confederation of Labor published a joint manifesto ordering demonstrations in every town in Italy to force the government to recognize soviet Russia. They said a general strike of rail workers had been arranged.

England's labor anxieties were centered on the action of the coal miners whose delegates, after rejecting the wage proposals of the mine owners, decided that notice of a strike, given some time ago, should expire on Saturday.

descent of Zemstvo power and functioning, and it is hoped these organizations may be evolved a central authority which will obtain the support of all the people.

There is a possibility, it is pointed out, that anarchy might attend the death of bolshevism in Russia and conditions throughout the soviet areas become worse, even than they are today. It is considered questionable, however, whether it would be expedient for the powers to intervene in Russia, although there should be general chaos and anarchy, as a strong faith is felt in the genius of the Russian people and their capacity to set up their own government without foreign interference or assistance.

Reports reaching the State department indicate that Gen. Wrangel is receiving the support of the masses wherever he goes in south Russia.

THIS WEEK'S STORE NEWS

BECAUSE of its Sincerity, its Liberality and its Unparalleled Values, the Fogel Department Store is known in Middletown and throughout the whole country for miles around, as the Logical Shopping Center for women who desire to practice thrift.

Only the other day a lady patron of ours remarked that she "didn't have to go to Wilmington or Philadelphia any more for so-called bargains", for she could always get the most for her money by trading with us.

Giving our customers all they pay for and a little more, besides an abundance of courtesy, service and quality, has not only built up our business, but has also won for Fogel's Store with its large and increasing trade, and its invariable custom of buying for spot cash, a standing among manufacturers and wholesalers that brings us the first choice of those special offerings constantly arising in the market. And our patrons well know, we never fail to share these special bargain savings with them. That fact is one of our biggest assets, and we are determined at all cost to keep it good in the future as in the past. We give below a few illustrations of our BARGAINS DIVIDENDS.
